

Shareholder FAQ

- 1. What value will SunEdison's stock (common or preferred) have in the future? Is it now worthless?
Please contact your professional investment advisor for further information and guidance.
- 2. Will SunEdison's common stock continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange?
That is up to the New York Stock Exchange to decide. If they delist our stock, it is likely that it may resume trading on the OTC Pink market. Please contact your professional investment advisor for further information.
- 3. Will SunEdison continue to issue quarterly financial results? Hold quarterly conference calls?
SunEdison will be filing monthly operating reports with the Bankruptcy Court. The Company currently plans to continue to file reports with the SEC. All of the company's SEC filings can be viewed in the Investor Relations section of our website <http://investors.sunedison.com>. Regular quarterly conference calls will be suspended during the reorganization proceedings.
- 4. Can a shareholder file a claim with the court for the value paid for shares?
Anyone can file a proof of claim, but shareholders in a company in chapter 11 generally recover value only if the claims of the secured and unsecured creditors are fully satisfied. Information about how to file a claim is available through the restructuring hotline.
- 5. Who at SunEdison can shareholders speak with regarding the future of their investment and whether to hold or sell?
Shareholders should consult with their own professional investment advisor to assess their personal investment situation.
- 6. Will there be a shareholders' committee?
It is too early in the process to know the answer to that question, and such a committee would have to be approved by the Court.
- 7. Where can investors go for more information?
Additional information on the restructuring can be found at www.restructuringupdates.com or by calling the Company's toll-free restructuring information line at (855) 388-4575 (or, if you are calling from outside the U.S. or Canada, at +1 (646) 795-6966). Information about the claims process will also be available at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/sunedison>.
